

Alumni event

1 March 2019 18:00 - 20:00

Berrick Saul Building

What can you do with a degree in Language and Linguistics?

Many different career paths are open to language and linguistics graduates...

...and to prove it, we are inviting our alumni back to York, so we can learn what they have achieved since graduation!

This year's guest speakers are:

Katie Wilkins

Postgraduate student in Speech and Language Therapy University College London

2017 BA English Language and Linguistics

John McStravick

Senior Political Analyst and Vice-Chair Agora ThinkTank

2013 BA in German and Linguistics

Nellie Allsop

*Widening Participation Ambassador
University of York*

2017 BA in Linguistics

The event will comprise a 1 hour panel session and Q&A, followed by a networking session for alumni, PGs and students. Refreshments will be provided.

The event is open to: all students and alumni of the Department, from any year or degree
