

YOUR CAREER JOURNEY

YOUR FUTURE, YORK FUTURES york.ac.uk/york-futures

2023/24 click the coloured links to find out more

POSTGRADUATE TAUGHT

Make the most of support and resources available to plan your next steps and make good quality applications.

*Part-time learners, or those not starting their studies in Semester 1, should still follow the journey but adjust the timings to fit the length of your programme.

Semester 1

Join the Graduate Student Association \(GSA\) community. Attend Welcome Week activities to explore opportunities.

Log in to Handshake for job alerts and events and set up your profile.

Research your career options.

Attend events and workshops to meet with employers and explore opportunities.

Look out for the Life after a Masters programme including the Panel event and recorded resources for Masters students.

KEY

Research your options

Make strong applications and prepare for recruitment processes

Academic and personal development

International students studying in York: Explore options for working in the UK, including visa requirements, and advice on returning to your home country.

Research recruitment processes and understand the assessment methods employers are using. Practise with our resources.

Market yourself! Update your CV and LinkedIn profile and start networking online.

Check closing dates and apply for UK graduate recruitment schemes.

Apply for PhD opportunities or further study after your programme.

Explore academic and personal development opportunities through the Academic Skills Community (ASC).

Build work experience through University volunteering and enterprise.

Consider part time work or an internship. Check with your supervisor about time commitment.

International students studying in York: Check your BRP card for how many hours you can work while studying.

Complete York Strengths Online to explore your personal strengths and consider these in relation to your career plans and applications.

Explore York Award and understand what you need to do to be able to apply at the end of your degree.

Stay supported – Use Talk Campus and University wellbeing resources.

Semester 2

Book a careers advice appointment to talk through your next steps.

Look out for events from the Asia Career Insights Series for international students

Explore enterprise, freelance and portfolio ways of working.

Get a mentor from York Profiles & Mentors – maybe someone from the country or sector you want to work in?

Listen to our podcast, What Do You Actually Do?, to find out what different careers are actually like.

Engage with careers events and workshops.

Complete the Next Steps Planner to assess where you might need careers support.

Check out Working in Research resources and attend our panel Q&A event.

Global Careers – take a look at the international picture.

International students studying in York: Explore visa options if wishing to stay in the UK.

Continue to get support from Careers and Placements after you've completed your programme.

Use the Careers and Placements website, self-help resources (CVs and interviews) and 1-1 support.

Update your CV and LinkedIn profile to apply for graduate and summer opportunities.

Apply for graduate jobs or further study after your programme.

Talk to your supervisor – consider if you have time to gain additional experience this summer.

Apply for York Award, a certificate of the University that recognises personal and professional development.

Check the events programme for careers workshops and the summer jobs fair.

Complete York Strengths Online if not done so already.

After graduation participate in York Global Alumni Association activities and events - check here for groups in the UK and around the world.

By the end of your Taught Masters programme you'll

- Have updated your CV and tailored it to your chosen work/study area.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/applications
- Have used the careers website to understand your options.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/ideas
- Have developed a better understanding of your strengths, skills and experience through York Strengths and York Award.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/york-strengths and york.ac.uk/careers/yorkaward
- Be able to articulate what skills, experience and knowledge you have gained through postgraduate study.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/postgraduate
- Have an understanding of recruitment processes and how to succeed in applications, interviews and assessment centres.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/graduate-jobs and york.ac.uk/careers/applications
- Know where to find 1-1 support if you need help to develop or progress your career plans.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/advice
- Get inspiration from other York graduates.
How to do it: york.ac.uk/careers/profiles