ANTHASTEMENT WORK AT THE UNIVERSITY OF

YORK

The University aims to provide a working and learning environment which will enable staff and students to fulfil their personal potential; where dignity and respect are promoted and harassment is unacceptable.

What is harassment?

It is behaviour that is unwanted by the recipient and unwarranted
by the working or study/social relationship.

The University's commitment to eliminating harassment is implemented, through the Code of Practice on Harassment.

http://www.york.ac.uk/admin/eo/Harassment/index.htm