

Centre for Women's Studies

25-Year Anniversary Autumn/Spring Term Research Seminars

As the Centre for Women's Studies is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in 2009, we have decided to invite in the main past and present students and staff to give papers in this academic year's research seminars. We are very proud to see how their work has developed and grateful for the contributions they have made to the Centre over time.

All research seminars will be held in VX331, Grimston House, 3rd floor, 1.30pm.

Wednesday 22 October 2008

Raffaella Ferrero Camoletto and Chiara Bertone, University of Turin, Italy
Studying Men's Heterosexualities in Midlife: Results from an Italian Research Project

Wednesday 26 November 2008

Professor Krista Cowman, Lincoln University
Second-Wave Feminists' Engagement with First-Wave Feminism

Wednesday, 10 December 2008

Dr Joanna de Groot, University of York
An Iranian Heroine

Wednesday, 28 January 2009

Dr Jieyu, University of Leeds
Sexuality at Work: A Case Study of Chinese Organizations

Wednesday, 4 February 2009

Dr Helen Graham, Open University
Gender and Learning Disability

Wednesday, 25 February 2009

CANCELLED

Dr Vicki Bertram, Manchester Metropolitan University
Gender and Poetry

Wednesday, 4 March 2009

Dr Yvette Taylor, University of Newcastle upon Tyne
Ticking All the Wrong Boxes? Gay Parents and the (Im)possibility of Being Right

Wednesday, 11 March 2009

Dr Helen Rogers, Liverpool John Moores University
Gender and Christian Salvation in an Early Victorian Goal

All very welcome!