

A new resource pack, available shortly...

OUTCOMES INTO PRACTICE

A practical resource for managers and trainers...

to assist development of outcome-focused practice and information in social care for adults, with research based guidance exploring...

- The relevance of outcomes in social care policy and practice
- The outcomes valued by users and carers – some frameworks
- What's involved in outcome-focused care management
- Outcomes information: it's collection, interpretation and use
- The practicalities of introducing new ways of working

... and materials for training and development:

- * CD with powerpoint presentations ***
- * Sample training programmes * Groupwork exercises ***
- * Handouts * Examples of practice tools ***

Authors: Elinor Nicholas, Hazel Qureshi, Claire Bamford

Purchasing details

The Resource Pack will be available (around end Oct 2003) from:

Publications Office, Social Policy Research Unit, University of York, Heslington, York,
YO10 5DD. Tel 01904 433608. Email: spruinfo@york.ac.uk

Approximate cost £75 + p&p (precise costs to be confirmed).

If you would like to be notified when the pack is available, OR to reserve a copy in advance please email, or return the reply slip to the above address. An order form will then be sent to you, confirming costs.

✂.....

REPLY SLIP

Please notify me when the 'Outcomes into Practice' Resource Pack is available for purchase.

Name: Job Title:

Address:

.....

Phone: Email:

I wish to reserve copy(ies) (Numbers, if known, will help us to estimate likely demand)

- Please tick here to receive more information about the
'Outcomes into Practice Network' when available.

Thank you.