

MANAGEMENT HISTORY RESEARCH GROUP

CONFERENCE AND CALL FOR PAPERS

28-29 JULY 2010

hosted by the
SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

Themes

We welcome papers in any area of management and business history, in particular themes that encourage diversity and development of the discipline: management thought and theory, mainstream and radical, professionalisation of managers and management, financial management, managerial elites, rise and fall of ancient and modern, management in the public services, entrepreneurial history, women and management, financial intermediaries, corporate social responsibility and employee welfare, boards, governance and audit.

Fees and Registration

The conference fee is expected to be c. £95 per person and c. £60 for PhD students. Details and booking arrangements to follow. Abstracts, proposals for panels and other expressions of interest are welcome at this stage. The deadline for abstracts, proposals and panels will be Friday 26 February 2010.

Further information can be obtained from:

Professor Alan McKinlay at am53@st-andrews.ac.uk