

ESRC e-Society Programme Wide Event Surveillance & Privacy in an e-Society 11 April 2007

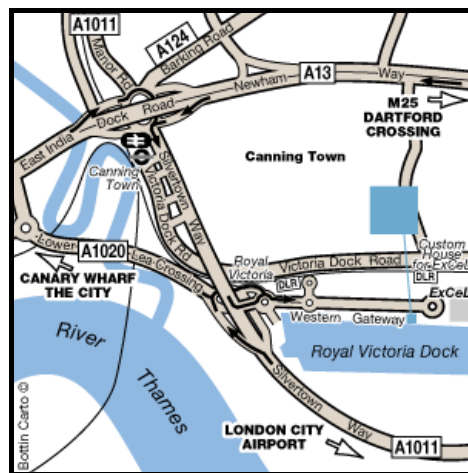

Venue: Novotel Hotel, Docklands, London
Accommodation: Novotel Hotel, Docklands, London

Time	Description	Presenter/s
09:00 – 09:45	Registration & Tea/Coffee available
09:45 – 09:50	Welcome and Introduction	Roger Burrows (ESRC e-Society Programme Co-ordinator, University of York)
09:50 – 11:00	Conceptualising a Surveillance Society	David Lyon (Queens University, Canada)
	Regulatory Options for Surveillance	Charles Raab (University of Edinburgh)
11:00 – 11:30	Tea/Coffee
11:30 – 13:00	Citizen Identification and the Quest for Public Services Improvement: Themes and Issues	Joe Organ, John Taylor, (Oxford Internet Institute), Miriam Lips (Victoria University of Wellington)
	DWP and the Surveillant Assemblage	Nicholas Pleace (University of York)
	Looking and Seeing with the Electronic Eye: The Child Index and the Aspiration for Tracking in Child Welfare	Chris Hall (University of Huddersfield)
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 16:00	Locatability and the Border	Louise Amoore (University of Durham)
	I've Got You Under My Skin: Ethical, Social and Spatial Issues with Implanted Tracking Devices	David Murakami Wood (University of Newcastle)
	Data Privacy Regulation, Digital Memory and the Legal Value of Forgetting	Andrew Charlesworth (University of Bristol)
	Criminal Justice and the Intensification of the Surveillance Gaze	Clive Norris (University of Sheffield)
16:00 – 16:30	Tea/Coffee
16:30 – 18:30	Privacy, Trust and Self-Disclosure Online	Adam Joinson (Open University), Tom Buchanan [Ulf, Reips & Carina Paine] (University of Westminster)
	Surveillance, Privacy and the Employment Relationship	Kirstie Ball (Open University)
	Targeted Consumers: Surveillance in the Personal Information Economy	Jason Pridmore (Queens University, Canada)
	On the Safe Side – Some Techniques for Comparing Risks and Benefits of Surveillance Technologies	Ann Rudinow Sætnan (Norwegian University of Science & Technology)
18:30 – 20:00	Reflections on the day in the light of the RAE Report on Privacy and Surveillance - followed by drinks	Nigel Gilbert (University of Surrey) and Panel Members: Henry Porter (The Observer), David Lyon (Queens University, Canada), David Smith (Information Commissioner's Office), Lois Rogers (Specialist Freelance Writer on Social Affairs).
20:00	Conference Dinner – at the Novotel Hotel

Surveillance & Privacy in an e-Society 11 April 2007

Novotel Hotel, Docklands, London ExCeL

Novotel London ExCeL, Western Gateway, Royal Victoria Dock

Below is a brief outline of the 11 April 2007

09:00	Registration
09:50	Start
19:30	Finish & Drinks
20:00	Dinner

4 star AA New Generation Novotel in a peaceful setting overlooking Royal Victoria Dock, 30 minutes from central London and 10 minutes from historic Greenwich. Close by is London City Airport, Canary Wharf and the City, and ExCeL Exhibition Centre is just 150m away. 257 stylish Novation bedrooms, an outdoor terrace and The Upper Deck Restaurant and Bar overlooking the Dock. 12 meeting rooms with natural light for up to 70 people, WiFi wireless Internet access, gym, sauna and steam room, on site parking £10 per day.

Airport : LONDON CITY AIRPORT/0.9 KM

Railway Station : DOCKLANDS LIGHT

Underground Station :

Line	Station
JUBILEE	CANNING TOWN
DLR	CUSTOM HOUSE

Activities* and events in the hotel : *Extra charge may apply

Relaxation and fitness

Fitness centre, Hammam, Jacuzzi, Sauna

Services at hotel:

The following services* are available for you to enjoy *Extra charge may apply

WiFi Wireless Internet access • Dry cleaning / Ironing • Shoe shine machine • Tourist information desk
Exchange office

Room fittings:

Audible smoke alarms • Dead bolt in rooms • 110/120 V AC • 220/240 V AC • Air conditioning system
Safe deposit box in room • Mini bar • Pay per view channel(s) • Phone • Radio in room
Satellite/Cable colour TV • Voice mail • WiFi Wireless Internet access • High speed transmission line
Juda (view port) • RJ 11 Plug • RJ 45 Plug • Smoke alarm in room

Bathroom fittings:

Bath tub • Hair dryer in bathroom • Radio in Bathroom • Shower tub (separate)

Room service:

Hot dishes • Cold snacks • Weekday hours: 24 hours • Weekend hours: 24 hours