Hi, my name is Sophie and I'm in my 4th year studying History.

I spent my 3rd year studying abroad at Complutense University of Madrid, Spain. It was interesting to see how Uni works in a different country, and taking classes and exams in Spanish was a challenge! My year abroad also gave me the chance to travel around Spain, share a flat with students from 6 different countries, and try lots of fantastic Spanish food (including many, many churros).

Additionally, 2 years ago I participated in the ‘Culture and Communication’ International Study Centre in Beijing, China. It left me with incredible memories and long-lasting friendships.

I'd be happy to answer any questions about European Exchange or the International Study Centres, and also about my experience of studying in a foreign language. If you have any worries or doubts, I'm always here to chat!

Hi, my name is Rebecca. I'm in my 3rd and final year studying Natural Sciences specialising in Physics.

I had an amazing time last year studying at the University of Sydney, Australia as an additional year. I got to study some very interesting courses and spent as much time as I could travelling Australia and New Zealand!

I think everyone should be able to have an amazing international experience, and that going through the University is a fantastic way to do it. If you have any general questions - about worldwide exchange, Australia, additional years - don't hesitate to ask!
Hello, my name is Peter and I am a 3rd year Film and Television student. As a foreign student in England, I study abroad by being here in York!

Nevertheless, last summer I had a great opportunity to travel even further from my home and attend one of our International Study Centres. I went to Michigan State University, where I took part in the course called ‘Leadership, Entrepreneurship and Problem Solving’. A chance to explore university life in the United States was another lifetime experience for me, as well as all the other trips and expeditions.

Do not be afraid of studying abroad! Making new friends, meeting other cultures and visiting unknown places is what our life should be about! Contact me whenever you like and ask any questions - I will do my best to help you!
