Exchange Scheme with the University of British Columbia - Okanagan Campus

Where UBC Okanagan?
UBC Okanagan is located in Kelowna in the heart of British Columbia’s Okanagan Valley, regarded as one of the most scenic regions in Canada. It currently has over 9,000 students.

Who can go?
- One place will be made available to York undergraduate students in 2020/21.
- This will replace your 2nd year of study at York (or the 2nd/3rd year of study if you’re on a 4 year programme) for credit-replacing exchanges. Please speak to your department about the availability of extended degrees that allow you to take an additional year to study abroad.
- Please consult the Opportunities by Subject webpage to see if your department is eligible for exchange.

Courses
- You can take up to a maximum of 30 credits per academic year or 15 per semester and a minimum of 24 (year) or 12 (semester) to ensure that you complete a full workload for 120 York credits. Most single-semester courses are a 3-credit course (equivalent to 3 hours of lectures per week for 13 weeks, with an additional 2-week examination period).
- All credits should be taken in the student’s degree subject in order to achieve the equivalent of 120 York credits.
- You will normally be taking second or third year courses at UBC.
- There are significant course restrictions for Management students. Okanagan do not accept Education or Nursing exchange students. For more details on course restrictions please see the following UBC web page: ubc.ca/global/incoming/academics/Program_restrictions.html

How will my marks be assessed/converted?
- Grade Conversion Tables for each institution will be made available to successful applicants. Grades will only be converted for credit replacement students.
- University of York staff can access Grade Conversion Tables here: york.ac.uk/students/study-abroad/accepted/#tab-5
- Please ensure that you are fully aware of how your grades will be converted on your return to York. Students on additional years will have different arrangements to those on credit-replacing exchange.

Costs
Please note that the costs below are based on previous years and are provided for guidance only. Exact costs may vary due to exchange rates, inflation, personal circumstance and/or other reasons.
- Tuition Fees: Students will pay no tuition fees to UBC Okanagan and in 2019/20 the University of York fees for students on exchange were reduced to 15% of the full academic fee.
- Visas: Study permits for Canada $150 (approx. £87)
Medical insurance:

- Full year students are automatically covered by iMED for the first three months before they can be enrolled in BC Medical Services Plan (MSP), which is the basic medical insurance provided by BC government for anyone who will reside in BC for more than six months.
- The cost of iMED for full year students is $180 CDN. The iMED plan will ensure that students have adequate medical coverage from the time they leave home (up to ten days prior to arrival if within the coverage dates) and while they are waiting for BC MSP to be effective.
- Full year and split-year students must apply for BC’s provincial Medical Services Plan (MSP) as soon as they arrive in BC, Canada.
- There is a three-month waiting period before students can be enrolled in MSP, during which time the students are covered under iMED.
- The UBC website has more information on both iMED and BC MSP here.
- Additional costs to consider: flights, accommodation, travel insurance and visas (see below), living costs (food, books, money for additional travel/activities)

Financial Assistance

Visa

Please be aware that Centre for Global Programmes staff are not qualified to offer consultations or in-depth advice regarding visa applications. Immigration laws are complex and subject to frequent changes. Therefore if you do have any further questions about the process of applying for your visa you will need to contact the appropriate Embassy directly. The information below is intended as guidance only and unless otherwise stated applies only to UK citizens without exceptional circumstances.

- Students will need to apply for a Canadian Study Permit to allow them to study in Canada. The application consists mainly of providing documents; passport, two passport photos, letter of acceptance from UBC and proof of financial support (bank statement, student finance, and letter from parent/guardian). For more information and for where to apply visit the Canadian Government website here.
- When going through your application, make use of the instruction guidelines and in particular, the document checklist. These can be found here: gc.ca/english/information/applications/guides/5269ETOC.asp
- Once the application is approved, you will receive your Visa at immigration in the first Canadian airport you travel through. For example, there will not be a direct flight to Kelowna but will most likely stop over at Vancouver or Calgary, it is at these airports that you go through immigration and will receive an official Visa document and a stamp in your passport. To receive your visa, you will need all the documents you used to apply for the visa and the email confirming your application approval. They will most likely only ask for the acceptance letter from UBC, however carry everything with you just in case.
- A Temporary Resident Visa (TRV, “entry visa” or “visitor visa”) is required for students with certain citizenships to enter Canada. Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) is required for foreign nationals from some visa-exempt countries. To find out if an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) or an entry visa is required, please check gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp or contact the nearest Canadian visa office.
- From 31st July 2018, students applying for Canadian Visas will have to register for Biometric checks. More information can be found on the official Canadian government webpages here: https://www.cbsa-asfc.gc.ca/security-securite/biometrics-biometrique-eng.html.
- Additional information can be found on the UBC website here.
What’s it like to study there?

“I feel I am a very different person than when I left for my year abroad. I have become far more confident. Previously, I would get very anxious about new challenges or meeting new people. After this year I have been able to approach this with a new attitude. I learnt from the beginning of both semesters to throw myself into things, which is how I met the most incredible people, and got involved with things like the Newspaper. Honestly, it was the most incredible experience and I would highly recommend it!”

Eleanor, Politics, Year Abroad 2018/19

“I do feel like there is now a piece of the world which feels like home, and I feel less lost in the vastness of the globe. I have had to make many arrangements and take on responsibilities on my own, and now feel much more independent and able to organize bills, living needs and travel arrangements. I have taken part in lots of local events, from university meet-ups to outdoor winter-sports, farmer’s markets, hiking and sight-seeing. I have made lots of friends who have introduced me to Canadian culture, such as politics, environmental views and social values. These have given me a great new perspective on my home country, which has taught me how to bring new behaviors and views back to Britain.”

Bernardine, Environment, Year Abroad 2017/18
