Exchange Scheme with Waseda University

Where is Waseda University?

Established in 1882 - Waseda University is an independent, private research university, located in Shinjuku, the centre of Tokyo, Japan. It is a large university with approximately 52,000 students and is one of the selected universities which receive additional funding from the Japanese Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology’s “Global 30” Project.

Who can go?

- Two places will be made available to university-wide undergraduate students from University of York in 2019/20 and another two places specifically for History 3+1 students.
- This will replace your 2nd year of study at York for credit-replacing programmes (or the 2nd/3rd year of study if you’re on a 4 year programme). Please speak to your department about the availability of extended degrees that allow you to take an additional year to study abroad.
- Please consult the Opportunities by Subject webpage to see if your department is eligible for exchange.

Courses

- It is recommended that exchange students take 7 courses per semester (which amounts to 14 credits).
  The School of International Liberal Studies (SILS) has its own curriculum. Some exchange students take as many as 20 courses (40 credits). Students should take care not to overload their timetable.
- If a student wishes to take extra courses in other non-degree related subjects, they should limit this to one additional course per semester.
- Waseda does offer courses in English from the School of Political Science and Economics, School of Commerce, School of Social Sciences, School of International Liberal Studies, School of Fundamental Science and Engineering, School of Creative Science and Engineering and the School of Advanced Science and Engineering.
- Please note that the School of Political Science and Economics have a GPA requirement of 3.0 (60%). Students who do not achieve this mark by the end of the preceding academic year will not be allowed to continue on the exchange.
- You can view the 2018/19 course catalogue here as a general guide. Remember to select English as the language of instruction: wsl.waseda.jp/syllabus/JAA101.php?pLng=en

How will my marks be assessed/converted?

- Grade Conversion Tables for each institution will be made available to successful applicants.
- University of York staff can access Grade Conversion Tables here: york.ac.uk/students/study-abroad/accepted/#tab-5
- Please ensure that you are fully aware of how your grades will be converted on your return to York. Students on additional years will have different arrangements to those on credit-replacing exchange.

Visa

Please be aware that Centre for Global Programmes staff are not qualified to offer consultations or in-depth advice regarding visa applications. Immigration laws are complex and subject to frequent changes. Therefore if you do have any further questions about the process of applying for your visa you will need to contact the appropriate Embassy directly. The information below is intended as guidance only and unless otherwise stated applies only to UK citizens without exceptional circumstances.

- Japanese Immigration Law requires international students to obtain a COE before applying for their student visa, an official document issued by the Japanese Ministry of Justice.
- Once you receive the COE, you can then submit this with the student visa application.
- Waseda will require nominated students to submit their COE applications along with their program application. The university will submit the COE application on the student’s behalf.
- The immigration office will normally take a month to issue the COE.
- Visa applications require students to prove they have sufficient funds in their bank accounts; the minimum sum recommended to cover living costs for the academic year is 80,000 JPY per month.
- The cost of visa’s can vary between £16 and £32. (approx.)
- The status of your visa application should be ‘college student’. The visa is usually issued a few days after the application is submitted, but may take a week or more depending on circumstances.

What’s it like to study there?

“I really enjoyed my study abroad experience. As someone who is quite shy, I feel really proud when I look back and realise I spent an entire year in a different country where I didn’t know anyone. I think being in Japan made me come out of my shell, exploring Tokyo and making friends from all over the world has improved my confidence and made me more outgoing. At times I felt homesick, which is only to be expected when you’re so far from home. My advice to anyone in the same situation would be to not focus on how long it is until you go home, but make the most of your time abroad, because you’ll definitely miss it once you’re back in Britain!”

“My advice to anyone considering study abroad is to just do it. I was nervous about it at first but I had such a great year, and would do it all again!”

Tess, History, Year Abroad 2015/16
“I have grown much more aware of how different societies in different parts of the world operate, thus improving upon my observation and analytical ability. The most helpful advice I could give to students interested in a study abroad experience is to research quite a bit of what that country and its citizens has to offer and try to grasp the basics of that country’s language before applying to study there. In both cases, you may or may not discover difficulties that may hinder your day-to-day living and studies at university.”

Robbie, History, Year Abroad 2017/18
