POSTGRADUATE CONFERENCE IN HISTORICAL ARCHAEOLOGY

THE CENTRE FOR HISTORICAL ARCHAEOLOGY,
UNIVERSITY OF LEICESTER

Saturday 9th October 2010

Location: Frank and Catherine May Lecture Theatre, Henry Wellcome Building, Leicester University (off Lancaster Road)

9.30: Registration opens
9.50: Welcome by Dr Audrey Horning (Director of the Centre for Historical Archaeology)

Session 1 (Chair: Dr Audrey Horning)

10.00: Matt Jenkins (Archaeology, University of York): Urban Myths: the streetscape in eighteenth-century York
10.30: Kevin Grant (Archaeology, University of Glasgow): William Roy: The Cartography of Fear

11.00-11.30 Coffee

11.30: Jeffrey Miller (Archaeology, University of Leicester): A Place for the Past: the role of heritage, history, and archaeology in the development of senses of place
12.00: Kieran McCarthy (Geography, University College Cork): Contesting Landscapes – Sacredness and Memory in an Irish Pilgrimage Site
12.30: Hilary Orange (Archaeology, University College London): ‘The Commoners and World Heritage on Minions Moor: A Troublesome Relationship’

1.00-2.00: Lunch, sponsored by the Society for Post-Medieval Archaeology
Location: Richard Attenborough Centre (Lancaster Road)
Session 2 (Chair: Dr Sarah Tarlow)

2.00: Laura Snook (Archaeology, University of Birmingham): Art or Archaeology?: Changing Exhibitions of Greek Sculpture

2.30: Gordon Marino (Archaeology, University of Manchester): Of Moleskin Joe and Carroty Dan – Life in the Navvy camps

3.00: Robert Maxwell (Archaeology, University of Sydney): Settlement decline in the 20th century – ideology, agency and behaviours of abandonment

3.30-4.00: Coffee

4.00: Lise Loktu (Archaeology, Norwegian University of Science and Technology): What is a clay pipe?

4.30: Rachel Askew (Archaeology, University of Sheffield): The Consumption of Material Culture in Castles During the English Civil Wars

5.00: Brooklynne Fothergill (Archaeology, University of Leicester): From New World to Old: The Introduction of the Domestic Turkey to Europe

5.30: Conference closes

BOOKING INFORMATION

The conference is free for all currently registered students. The conference fee for other delegates is £20.00. Booking forms and credit card payment forms are available at: http://www2.le.ac.uk/departments/archaeology/research/events

Deadline for booking: 24th September 2010

Maps of the University campus are available at: http://www2.le.ac.uk/maps

For further information contact Dr Chris King: cnk4@le.ac.uk or Jeffrey Miller: jm305@le.ac.uk