About the Records

The register of apprentices is found in the first Court Book of the Eastland Company, with additional records of apprentices appearing in the first minute book of the Company of Merchant Adventurers, 1677-1736 (although most of the material in the latter duplicates information in the Eastland Court Book.

The Archive reference for the Eastland Court Book is Eastland 2/1. Folio references are given after each entry. Additional information taken from the Minute Book of the Merchant Taylors is indicated by prefixing the folio reference with M.

The register is headed:

23 February 1646: A true and perfect register of all such apprentices, as has been taken and bound amongst the fellowship of merchant adventurers within the cittie of Yorke (being free brethren of the Eastland Company) since the last certificate was returned in February Anno Domini 1641 as I received it from Mr John Croft (Secretary to the said Citties Company) out of the Court booke in his costodie, 23 February 1646.
