

ESRC International Research Seminar Series
Child Maintenance: International Perspectives & Policy Challenges

ESRC Award: ES/L000792/

THE UNIVERSITY of York

Evaluation Form

SEMINAR 3: Gender and Social Change in Developing Regions:

Managing obligations to children in separated families

Friday 27 June, 2014, Alcuin Research and Resource Centre (ARRC, RC-014)

York, YO10 5DD

EVALUATION FORM RESULTS – 15 forms completed

1. How would you rate the presentations?

[5 = excellent; 1 = poor]

Content: 13/15 people scored 5 = excellent: 2 scored 4.
Quality of delivery: 12/15 people scored 5 = excellent: 2 scored 4.

Comments:

- Lovely supportive environment for early carer researchers
- Very interesting and well presented; very well organised (x 3), especially division between morning and afternoon.
- Very interesting day
- Very interesting international comparisons
- Very friendly discussion environment
- Very inspiring in the aspects of gender, it has broadened my view.

2. Which of the following did you find most useful? *[please circle as many as apply]

Presentation x 10 people      Discussion x 12      Networking opportunity x 8

3. Do you plan to disseminate messages from this event to your colleagues?

YES x 13

If yes, how?

~ in various forms of meetings with other PhD students in UK and in lawyer's professional organisations in UK and in Germany and to PhD sponsors; passing on details about the website and the whole series to colleagues; through mailing lists, social media and lectures; through the development of a themed section in an international journal (4 papers may be published from the day).

4. How useful was the seminar in helping you to think about future research questions collaborations?

[5 = highly useful; 1 = not useful at all]

8 people scored 5: 5 people scored 4: 1 person scored 3:

- It was a fabulous seminar; we talked about our research with international aspects.

5 Do you have other comments?

- Very useful for my research and a friendly seminar.
- Very interesting presentations. Lots of variety in topics – yet related enough to be fascinating.
- Very informative and excellent presentations and discussions.
- Well organised, Friendly and informal which created a very positive dialogue
- Very Good!
- Great job!
- Thanks!