

Centre for Applied Human Rights

Doing Business with Indigenous Peoples: Transnational Corporations and Human Rights

Dr. Jérémie Gilbert
Middlesex University

Dr. Gilbert helped set up a new Human Rights and Business LLM at Middlesex University. He is author of Indigenous Peoples' Land Rights under International Law: From Victims to Actors (2007). He regularly works with Minority Rights Group and the Forest Peoples' Programme. He was an invited expert for the UN Expert Seminar on Treaties and other arrangements between States and Indigenous Peoples.

Monday 17 October
1:15-2:15 pm

Ron Cooke Hub, Room 017
Heslington East Campus, University of York