

Centre for Applied Human Rights

Representing Palestinian Refugees: Art, Narrative and Nostalgia

John Nassari
University of East London

John Nassari is an international artist and senior lecturer at UEL. He is the director of PhotoInsight, an online art and theory website dedicated to issues in forced migration. John works on interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary methodologies in Refugee Studies, and has published widely on refugee representation, identity, memory and narrative.

Tuesday 21 February 2012
5:00-6:15 pm

Ron Cooke Hub, Lakehouse Room
Heslington East Campus, University of York