

Centre for Applied Human Rights

HIV and Human Rights in China

Reyilia Maimaiti,
CAHR Human Rights Protective Fellow

Rayila is an ethnic Uyghur from the Xinjiang Province of China. She currently works in the first and largest HIV/AIDS organisation in Beijing as a Policy Advocacy Coordinator. AIDS is now officially the top killer disease in China.

Thursday 10 March 13:15-14:15

LMB/037, Law and Management Building
Campus East