

SECOND EUROPEAN WORKSHOP ON ECONOMETRICS AND HEALTH ECONOMICS

PROGRAMME

Wednesday 8 September:

- 4.00 - 6.00 REGISTRATION - Porters' Lodge, Derwent College.
- 7.30 - 9.00 RECEPTION - Senior Common Room, Derwent College.
- 9.00 Derwent College Bar.

Thursday 9 September:

- 9.00 - 9.15 INTRODUCTION - IRISS Seminar Room.
- Chair: Lise Rochaix
- 9.15 - 10.15 Winfried Pohlmeier and Volker Ulrich (University of Mannheim)
An econometric model of the two part decision process of the demand for health.
- 10.15 - 11.15 Liselotte Freilev and Kaare Emtoft (DHI, Copenhagen)
Does the level of health expenditure have an impact on life expectancy?
- 11.15 - 11.45 COFFEE
- 11.45 - 12.45 Thomas Getzen and Michael Kendix (Temple University & Rutgers University)
The analysis of adjustment dynamics in health care; time series analysis of health services employment, expenditure and prices.
- 12.45 - 2.00 LUNCH
(Software Demonstration: MEMPHIS)

- 11.45 - 12.45 Jes Søgaard (Odense University)
Child mortality and health care in 28 African countries in 1984 and 1987: Econometric analysis with special reference to the repeated cross-section design.
- 12.45 - 2.00 LUNCH
(Software demonstration: NP-REG v.2)
- Chair: David Parkin
- 2.00 - 2.40 Doctoral session: Laura Pellisé (Universitat Pompeu Fabra)
Optimal reimbursement systems: the case of MUFACE in the Spanish health care system.
- 2.40 - 3.20 Adam Wagstaff and Eddy van Doorslaer
(University of Sussex & Erasmus University)
Measuring inequalities in health in the presence of categorical health indicators.
- 3.20 - 3.50 BUSINESS MEETING
- 3.50 - 4.20 COFFEE
- 4.20 - 5.20 Marc Koopmanschap, B.M van Ineveld, Leona van Roijen, and F.Rutten (Erasmus University)
Making reliable and realistic estimates of indirect costs of disease.
- 9.00 DINNER