

Tackling Lad Culture on Campus

The summit seeks to raise awareness of lad culture or 'laddism', identify how prevalent this is in our universities locally and to explore how it might best be tackled by staff and students. This event is free for all staff and students from Higher Education institutions in the North East.

Plenary Session speakers to include:

Minda Burgos-Lukes from National Union of Students on national activities

Dave Llewellyn from Good Lad Initiative on laddism is a men's issue too

Vanita Sundarum from York University on the latest laddism research

Local perspectives from National Union of Students equality and women's officers including:

Lizi Gray (Northumbria University)

Olivia Jeffery (Newcastle University)

Ola Tony-Obot (Sunderland University)

Laura Carter (Durham University)

In addition

there will be practical workshops for staff and for students on tackling lad culture on campus
