

Scribal Cultures in Late Medieval England: A Conference in honour of Professor Linne R. Mooney

Three cases of manuscript fragments donated to the university by Professor Toshiyuki Takamiya will be on display in the Huntingdon Room throughout the day

- 10:00-10:30 Registration and coffee
- 10:30 Welcome (Helen Smith, Head of Department of English & Related Literature)
- 10:30-11:00 Keynote: Derek Pearsall (Harvard Emeritus), Linne Mooney: A Life among Manuscripts
- 11:00-12:30 Session 2 (Chair: Helen Smith)
- Daryl Green (Oxford), Gamelyn Revisited
- Helen Killick (Reading), The medieval 'side-hustler': Thomas Hoccleve's career in, and out, of the Privy Seal
- Holly James-Maddocks (York), Localising Limner Activity: The Case for Norwich
- 12:30-13:30 Lunch
- 13:30-15:00 Session 3 (Chair: K. P. Clarke)
- Sebastian Sobocki (Groningen), Exit Hoccleve: A New Context for *The Series
- Wendy Scase (Birmingham), Middle English Scribes' Signatures
- Nicola McDonald (York), Riding the North Riding: Mapping Robert Thornton
- 15:00-15:30 Coffee and tea
- 15:30-16:30 Session 4 (Chair: Lydia Zeldenrust)
- Andrew Prescott (Glasgow) and Elaine Treharne (Stanford), The Centrality of the Marginal: Further Explorations in National Library of Wales, Peniarth MS 392D
- Margaret Connolly (St Andrews), The Anonymous 'Kings of England' and Material Form
- 16:30-17:30 Keynote (Chair: Sarah Rees Jones)

Simon Horobin (Oxford), What next for Adam Pinkhurst?

Closing remarks (Sarah Rees Jones, Director of the Centre for Medieval Studies)

17:30-18:30 Wine reception

This event has been generously supported by Boydell & Brewer, the Centre for Medieval Studies, and the Department of English and Related Literature.