

YORKSHIRE PLACE-NAMES IN THE EARLY MIDDLE AGES

Society for Name Studies in Britain and Ireland annual day conference

Saturday 29th October 2011

Centre for Medieval Studies, The King's Manor, York

10.15-11.00	REGISTRATION AND COFFEE
11.00-11.45	Thomas Pickles (University of York) 'The Adventus Saxonum vel Anglorum in Yorkshire and Beyond: the evidence of place-names'
11.45-12.30	Stuart Wrathmell (West Yorkshire Archaeology Service) 'Place-Names, Settlement Sites and Territories: the Vale of Pickering and the Yorkshire Wolds'
12.30-1.30	LUNCH
1.30-2.15	Fiona Edmonds (University of Cambridge) 'Gaelic-Scandinavian Influence in Yorkshire'
2.15-3.00	Sarah Rees Jones (University of York) 'The -stræt Names of York and the Development of the City'
3.00-3.30	TEA
3.30-4.30	Paul Cullen (University of the West of England, Bristol), Richard Jones (University of Leicester), and David Parsons (University of Wales, Aberystwyth) ' Thorp in Yorkshire'

Cost (including catering): £20.00 (or £15.00 for students). To register please send a cheque (payable to the University of York) to Matthew Townend, Centre for Medieval Studies, The King's Manor, York YO1 7EP. Enquiries: matthew.townend@york.ac.uk / 01904 323922. Please book by 17th October 2011.

---

I / we would like to attend the SNSBI conference on 'Yorkshire Place-Names in the Early Middle Ages' on Saturday 29th October, and enclose a cheque for £ .

Name(s):

Address (including e-mail address, if possible):

LOCATION

The King's Manor is located in the centre of York, not far from York Minster. Its gates front onto Exhibition Square, at right angles to the city art gallery. The conference will be held in the Huntingdon Room at the King's Manor.

CAR

Unfortunately no parking is available at the King's Manor. There are car parks off Gillygate and Bootham (and elsewhere in the city), and park-and-ride facilities at Askham Bar (ring road, south-west), Grimston Bar (east) and Clifton Moor (north).

RAIL

The King's Manor is less than ten minutes' walk from York railway station.