- 1 You have been appointed an adviser to Ben Bradshaw, Minister for Nature Conservation and Fisheries. Write a briefing paper for the minister, setting out your recommendations for his priorities for conservation and management of the seas around Britain.

- 2 Compare and contrast problems of coastal zone management in temperate and tropical areas.

- 3 Discuss, using examples, the management problems and solutions for dealing with degradable waste.

- 4 Discuss the advantages of integrated coastal zone management (ICZM) over sectoral approaches and highlight the obstacles that ICZM can face. Illustrate your answer with examples from case studies.
