

Summary

This event provides an opportunity to network and share good practice when working with families and engaging in supervision.

Timetable

Coffee on arrival.

Start 10.45am

Are we being NICE with families?

Sue Wadforth, Manager, Holderness Mental Health Team

Talking with Families - is it 'just talking' or is it family 'work'?

Rob Allison, Mental Health Lecturer,
Department of Health Sciences, University of York

Using Live Supervision to Deliver Family Intervention Training

Anita Savage-Grainge, Mental Health Lecturer,
Department of Health Sciences, University of York, and Rick Allen, Specialist Practitioner, Harrogate
Assertive Outreach Team

There will also be two further presentations from a PSI practitioner and a family member who has experienced family work.

Finish 4.00pm

University of Sunderland

leeds metropolitan university

Date and Venue

Wednesday 16th October 2013
Ron Cooke Hub, RCH/204,
Heslington East Campus,
University of York

Venue information

Limited parking is available and is pay and display within Heslington East. There is a cafe within the Ron Cooke Hub for refreshments.

Funding

Places are free.

How to book

To be able to attend you must book a place.

Please visit <http://www.york.ac.uk/healthsciences/bestpractice/> to book a place.

Further information

Contact Sue Chapman on 01904 321321.