

CONTRACT RESEARCHERS FORUM (CRF) NEWSLETTER

WHAT'S COMING UP?

Bring Your Own Lunches

The CRF organise informal lunches which are open to everyone. We sometimes set a topic for the lunch, but you're welcome to come along just for a chat about anything work or non-work related!

- What? At our next lunch, we'll be talking about supervising student dissertations. Prof. Alex Smith will answer questions and share how Contract Researchers' feedback informed this year's arrangements. Please come along even if you've never engaged with student supervision, but might be interested in the future.
- When? Thursday 25th April
- Time? 12pm - 1pm.
- Where? ARC/201A.

SHARE YOUR VIEWS

We want to make sure the CRF is meeting everyone's needs - including PhD students, early career researchers, mid career researchers and research support staff in our department. To share your ideas, anonymously, please complete our short survey.

Are you involved in quantitative research, or interested in improving your knowledge of quantitative research? Join the CRF's new Quantitative Research Network today!

RECENT EVENTS

In February, 28 attendees and speakers attended a CRF training event about "Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in the Department and our Research". Thank you to all who took part and especially to the wonderful speakers.

As requested, here are some more resources about EDI:

- Supporting equity and tackling inequality
- Increasing Participation of Black Asian and Minority Ethnic Groups in Research
- UoY information about EDI

Following attendees' suggestions for future training events, we are busy planning a session about Impact for the Autumn Term.
