Assessment Guidance Assessment title Midwifery Practice Learning 2 Assessment guidance There are three components to achieve as part of Midwifery Practice Learning 2: 1. Proficiencies for Stage two 2. SafeMedicate online exam. 3. Hours Part 1 - Proficiencies You are required to demonstrate progression towards the identified proficiencies for Stage two in the eMORA. You are required to demonstrate by the end of the module that you are able to contribute with decreasing supervision and direction, all relevant proficiencies identified in the eMORA document. The Practice Assessor (PA) will confirm student achievement by undertaking objective reviews and completing the summative holistic assessment (summative). Part 2 – SafeMedicate online exam You are also required to complete the relevant safeMedicate online assessment. This assessment will be marked as a PASS/FAIL. You are considered to have passed this assessment if you achieve 90% or above. Part 3 - Hours You should aim to have completed all hours assigned for Stage Two by the end of Midwifery Practice Learning 2. A stage deficit of more than 150 hours will require you to undertake a retrieval placement whilst on a summative progression plan to reduce the hours deficit below 150 hours. The Department of Health Sciences strongly advises you to have a zero-hour deficit at the end of each stage. Formative support Proficiencies

You must arrange two PA reviews (as per assessment schedule dates) with your practice assessor to review your evidence and progress in practice. Any significant concerns about your practice raised at this point, or at any other point during your practice experience, will be recorded in the progression plan.

SafeMedicate

There will 2 formative assessment opportunities for you to develop your drug calculation skills. One of these formative assessments will take place under exam conditions.
