Assessment Guidance

Formative – examples of exam questions
Students will have access to sample multiple choice and short answer questions as they progress through the module. They will be given an opportunity to review the answer booklet prior to the summative assessment to familiarise themselves with the layout.

Summative – closed examination
Unseen, closed book, multiple choice/short answer question paper that assesses knowledge of medicines legislation, pharmacological knowledge, legal and ethical principles in medicines management and knowledge of the concepts of compliance, concordance and adherence.

The following weighting will apply:
50% for the MCQ section
50% for the short answer section

The examination paper will be negatively marked.
