Assessment Guidance

Formative Assessment

You are invited to submit an annotated bibliography of 500 words (maximum) relating to your summative assignment (essay).

Your annotated bibliography can include:

- Core references for your proposed summative essay assignment including notes/comments on the main arguments/issues each reference will provide.
- A proposed essay structure/headings and sub-headings with core references in each section

Summative Assessment

You are required to write an essay critically examining a complex emergency. Your essay will include a background to the situation and then critical analysis of the various aspects that would influence any humanitarian response. The essay will conclude with a set of criteria or recommendations that need to be incorporated or considered in implementing any humanitarian response.

Your essay should demonstrate thorough reading and engagement with the course material. You should consider the role of affected populations in your essay.

References should be used throughout your assignment.
