Assessment Guidance

Formative assessment
Students will be given a practical data extraction and/or quality assessment exercise. This formative exercise is to give students some practice in carrying out practical activities that underpin systematic reviews. An example answer will be made available to the class the following week and there will be an opportunity for class discussion. This activity does not contribute to the module mark.

Summative assessment
The assessment will be a critique of a systematic review. The assignment is not under exam conditions and the students will be given the systematic review before the end of the teaching term.
