| Assessment Guidance Formative assessment:           Formative assessment involves student engagement with a variety of case studies. These will be released gradually into the VLE after each taught session. Over the course of the module these will become more challenging and increase in complexity. Formative feedback will be from online Multiple-Choice Questions. Engagement with discussion boards which align with the case studies involving both their peers and the module leaders will also provide peer and lecturer feedback in addition to practice examination questions. Through this engagement students will have the opportunity to develop their knowledge and understanding of ECG interpretation and become better prepared for the summative examination. Summative assessment:           Open Examination: 100% Short Answer / Essay Question paper. Marked against the marking criteria for each question and the criteria for essays at level 6 These papers will assess the student's knowledge and understanding of ECG interpretation in the context of contemporary patient treatment and care as highlighted in the learning outcomes. The total exam time is 4 hours. It is anticipated this examination should take 2.5 hours with an hour for upload. |   |  |  |
