Assessment Guidance

Formative Assessment
The purpose of the formative assessment is to support the development of the written summative assessment. You are required to give a 15 minute presentation regarding your role using the stress vulnerability model with a client. You will be expected to critically examine your approach and reflect on the effectiveness of the process. You will be expected to provide proposals and solutions to improve your personal practice.

The feedback provided will support the development of the essay.

You will examine the same implementation of practice in both the formative and summative assessment.

Summative Assessment
An essay which will demonstrate an understanding of the literature concerning the stress vulnerability model with clients, their utility and application within the student’s own clinical practice.

Essay title:
The stress vulnerability model: Critically review the evidence base for the stress vulnerability model and critically appraise your attempts to implement it with an individual with a complex mental health problem.

This assessment has 5 tasks:
1. Using relevant theory and research define and critique theory of stress vulnerability model.
3. Briefly describe a complex case from your own practice and discuss an appropriate stress vulnerability strategy to meet the needs of the case.
4. Provide a case specific rationale for choice of this intervention.
5. Critically reflect on your implementation of the stress vulnerability model.
