

Storytelling in Court and Cloister Programme

November 2nd, 2013

Huntingdon Room, Kings Manor, University of York, YO1 7EP

[On Friday evening, for those who wish: we will meet at 6:20 in the Kings Manor, then proceed to the Minster to see 'The Orb' and on to dinner at 7:30 at ASK.]

- 9:45am            Doors open
- 10:20am           Welcome
- 10:30am           Session 1
Dr Tom Pickles (University of Chester), 'Bede's Ecclesiastical History and Stories for the Royal Court'
Prof. Elisabeth van Houts (Emmanuel College, Cambridge), 'Daughters' Stories about their Mothers in the Middle Ages.'
- 11:30am           Tea & Coffee
- 12:00pm           Session 2
Prof. Christopher Norton (University of York), 'The St William Window in York Minster – a Very Tall Story'
Prof. Anthony Bale (Birkbeck, University of London), 'William Wey's Storied World'
- 1:00pm            Lunch
- 2:00pm            Session 3
Prof. Ross Balzaretto (University of Nottingham), 'Telling Stories in Early Medieval Charters'
Dr. Bronach Kane (University of Cardiff) 'Narratives of Intimacy in the Medieval English Ecclesiastical Courts'
- 3:00pm            Tea & Coffee
- 3:30pm            Session 4
Dr David Rundle (University of Essex), 'The Story and the Book: Telling Tales from the Edge of Court in Late Medieval Europe'
Mrs. Henrietta Leyser (St Peter's College, Oxford), 'The Many Deaths of Arthur and the Search for a National Story'
- 4:45pm Roundtable discussion: chaired by Prof. Elizabeth Tyler (University of York)
- 5:30pm Drinks
- 6:15pm End