

MA MODULE DESIGNATION FOR PATHWAY DEGREES

In 2014-15 pathway degrees are offered in Architectural History and Theory, British Art, Medieval Art & Medievalisms, and Sculpture Studies. To gain a pathway degree, you must take at least two of your four option modules from those designated to the relevant specialism and write your dissertation on a related topic.

The following is a list of modules being offered in 2014-15, showing how they relate to the pathway degrees.

Please make sure that your module choices fulfil the minimum requirements for your degree.

		Architectural History & Theory	British Art	Medieval Art & Medievalisms	Sculpture Studies
Autumn 2014	Art and Imagery in York Minster	✓	✓	✓	✓
	Art in the Age of 'Network Capitalism'
	Bauhaus and Weimar Culture	✓
	Landscape Painting in Britain c. 1750–1850		✓
	Monastic Patronage of the Arts 1080-1220		✓	✓
	Scrolls and Serpents		✓	✓	✓
	Theory and Historiography
	The Uses of Photography
	Writing Architecture	✓
Spring 2015	American Architects and Modernities, 1945-1980	✓
	Desperate Romantics? The Pre-Raphaelites &amp; their Reputation		✓
	Domestic Interiors in Italy 1400-1550	✓		✓	✓
	Interpreting Northern Renaissance Art			✓
	'Painting on Light': Stained Glass in the Medieval Tradition	✓	✓	✓
	Romanesque Art and Architecture	✓		✓	✓
	Sculpture, Craft and Design Reform, 1837-1901		✓		✓
	The Work of Art c.1550 - c.1750: Redeeming Matter	✓			✓