

“What is to become of the Crystal Palace?”

An interdisciplinary workshop on the Crystal Palace
after 1851

Workshop: 10.30-5.15, The Treehouse, Berrick Saul Building

With a keynote lecture by Professor Isobel Armstrong (Birkbeck)

“Victorian Glassworlds: Reflections on a Project, its Genesis and Aftermath”

5.30 pm in V123, Vanbrugh College

Followed by a drinks reception in the History of Art Department

To register for a free place at the workshop please email Kate.Nichols@york.ac.uk by 20th May (Places are free but must be booked in advance)

**There is no need to register for the keynote lecture. Please just turn up shortly before 5.30 pm****

The event is very generously sponsored by the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art, the Cultures of the Global Research Strand (Centre for Modern Studies, York) and the British Art Research School (History of Art Department, York)