

Institute for the Public Understanding of the Past

York 50+ Festival 2016, Oral History Project
Information for participants

We are a group of student volunteers who have come to hear your memories of living in York (or elsewhere), and to ask you a few questions (please do not feel that you have to answer every question we ask).

We would also like your permission to record the conversation, and to deposit this recording in an archive: please see overleaf.

This activity has been organised by the Institute for the Public Understanding of the Past (University of York) and the York Liberal Jewish Community, as part of the York 50+ Festival 2016. The purpose of the project is to encourage meaningful intergenerational communication, to provide University of York students with experience of conducting oral history research, and to create a valuable historical resource for future generations.

For more information, please contact Dr Huw Halstead from the Department of History at the University of York (huw.halstead@york.ac.uk).
