Europe

‘Europe’ is a pressing concern for Britain, for the EU, for the larger European region and globally.

This session aims to stimulate and connect interdisciplinary research on Europe’s past, present and future, none of which can be understood in isolation.

With short contributions from:

- Dr Nicole Lindstrom (Politics)
- Dr Hugo Service (History)
- Dr Simon Sweeney (Management)
- Professor Elizabeth Tyler (English and Medieval Studies)

Tuesday 17 January 2017, 5.30 – 7.00pm,
Treehouse (Berrick Saul Building)

Drinks served; debate encouraged.

Presenting and contesting dynamic, provocative ideas in the Arts and Humanities and beyond
