Tutor response:

- Overall, It looks like you enjoyed the course and found the activities and resources helpful to your learning process. I am pleased to see you understood my passion and commitment towards the module and you could feel the enthusiasm I put in my work throughout the year.
- Delivering this module, which I did not design originally was somehow challenging, as I had to adapt many of the original contents to my own voice and your particular needs, so it is satisfying to see that the final result was highly positive.

Thank you for your feedback.
