

Department of Language and Linguistic Science
2022/23 Module Evaluation

Summary of open comments with tutor response

Module Code and Name: LAN00053H France and the Second World War

Module Convenor: Angela O'Flaherty

12 out of 26 students completed the online module evaluation.

4 students left comments.

Overall satisfaction score for the module was: 4.5

Summary of comments:

Positive comments	Number
I enjoyed this module	3
Content very engaging and interesting/broad scope/new and recent material	2
Module well structured	1
Eased us into the subject (understood we didn't have prior knowledge)/ makes difficult subjects engaging	1
Creates a welcoming environment where students feel supported and comfortable to speak	1
Angela is always helpful and goes up and beyond for her students	1
One of my favourite modules on the degree	1

Constructive criticisms	Number
Felt squeezed into the Term 2/3 structure/ Work heavily weighted to spring/summer	2
Formative for the commentary didn't give a full idea of how summative would work/didn't prepare me	2

Tutor response:

Thank you for your lovely comments. It's great to see you enjoyed the module. With regards to the constructive criticisms:

1. The new iteration of this module will run in Semester 2. This should actually help with some of the issues regarding the way in which the old term structure made this module feel a bit 'squeezed'.
2. I take this point on board. This hasn't been an issue in the past but I will make sure that next year, I clearly state any (minor) differences between the formative and the summative and make sure that it is designed in such a manner as to best help students.

Thank you for your feedback.