I found the module very interesting and really enjoyed it. One thing I would say is that the seminars were essentially just lectures where we are asked to comment on what we have seen. It might be useful to have questions with more direction in class.	1
Quite a heavy reading, information and lecture based module but very interesting and thought provoking.	1

Tutor response:

A highly engaged group with great contributions to seminars and interesting research projects. Their contributions were always pertinent. The request for more direction in seminar discussions is reasonable and I'll pay attention to this aspect next year.

Thank you for your feedback.
