Tutor response:

I was pleased to see that students were very satisfied with the module overall. Students were particularly happy with teaching, having the opportunities to apply what they were learning, and opportunities to contact me for support and guidance.

I agree that there is too much content in some of the lectures. I removed some for 2022–23, but will aim to reduce content further when I next deliver (a revamped version of) the module. Hopefully this will make lectures easier to follow, including on Panopto. I can't do much else about the audio and subtitling on Panopto, but I will pass on the information that audio quality was poor in the hope that room microphones can be improved.

Thank you for your feedback.
