Tutor response:

Thank you for completing the student feedback as this is always helpful in improving the module. It is great to see that the people who responded enjoyed the course, in particular that they found it intellectually stimulating and that students had opportunities to apply concepts from other modules to this course, and explore the topic in depth. The comments were also very constructive – I will certainly make a point of slowing down and integrating more pauses into the content (this will be easier under semesterization where there will be more teaching weeks and so more time), and the point about letting students know the timeline of assessments in the first lecture is also helpful to know.

Thank you for your feedback.
