Get involved in the Library’s World Book Day activities by leaving one of your own books for others to enjoy. Don’t forget to add a bookplate; they can be found at: www.york.ac.uk/library/news

Library Book Swap 2013

Attach this label to your book and leave a message for its new owner.

Then, either drop it off at the JB Morrell or King’s Manor Library, or release it into the wilderness of The University of York campus for someone to find!

If you want to keep track of the book, check out www.bookcrossing.com where you can register for an ID to attach to your book, allowing you to follow its travels online.
