

THE YORK GLAZIERS TRUST
Over 50 Years of Excellence in Stained Glass Craft and Conservation

MA in Stained Glass Conservation and Heritage Management

Tenth Anniversary Master-Class Event

Saturday, 10 November 2018

A Decade of Discovery

The Great East Window of York Minster – Ten Years On

Programme

09.00-09.30 Registration and Coffee, Huntingdon Room, The King's Manor

09.30-09.40 Introduction and Welcome, Sarah Brown, Course Director

09.40-10.30 'Context: The East Front, Construction and Conservation', Andrew Arrol, Surveyor to the Fabric, York Minster

10.30-11.30 'The Great East Window: Glass Composition and Analysis', Prof. Ian Freestone, University College, London

11.30-12.30 'The East Window: Old Testament Scenes, the Apocalypse and the Ages of the World', Prof. Nigel Morgan, University of Cambridge

12.30-14.15 Buffet Lunch followed by visit to York Minster to see the Great East Window in situ

14.30-14.45 Coffee/Tea served at the King's Manor

14.45-15.30 'Conserving the Great East Window of York Minster', Sarah Brown, University of York and the York Glaziers Trust

15.30-16.00 'The Work of the East Window Advisory Group', Prof. Richard Marks, Universities of York and Cambridge

16.00-17.00 'Ways of Looking at the Great East Window', Prof. Christopher Norton, University of York

17.00 Closing Remarks following by wine reception