

Centre for Modern Studies (CModS) Post-Graduate Forum Spring Term Events 2011

The CModS Post-Graduate Forum aims to facilitate informal interdisciplinary exchange between arts, humanities and social sciences post-graduates with an interest in the modern period (1800-). Post-graduates are invited to give short presentations on their research, receive supportive peer feedback, and join in the discussion.

Week 4: Thursday 3rd February

Forum in collaboration with the Philosophy Conference Aesthetic Autonomy
BS/Treehouse, 2.30pm – 4.00pm

Week 6: Tuesday 15th February

Forum: Tom Wright (History) and Sean Willcocks (History of Art)
'Punishment and Repression'
BS/007, 4.15pm – 5.30pm

Week 8: Tuesday 1st March

Forum: Andrew Stead (History) and Dominic Shaw (Philosophy)
Title tbc
BS/007, 4.15pm – 5.30pm

Week 10: Tuesday 15th March

Forum: Daryl Martin (Sociology) and Catherine Spencer (History of Art)
'The Extraordinary Everyday'
BS/007, 4.15pm – 5.30pm

Call for Presentations Summer Term 2011

Interested in giving a presentation, practicing a conference paper, or getting feedback on a piece of research? We're currently looking for speakers for our Summer Term 2011 forum sessions – if you'd like to present please contact cmods-pgforum@york.ac.uk with a brief outline of your topic (presentations should be approx 10mins long).