White Rose Studentships 2017/18

Applications are now open for funding from the White Rose College of Arts and Humanities (WRoCAH) and the new White Rose Doctoral Training Partnership (WR DTP).

WRoCAH studentships are for arts and humanities students and cover tuition fees and a stipend for three years (full time) or five or six years (part time). Find out more.

WR DTP studentships are for students in the social sciences. The studentships will cover tuition fees and provide a stipend towards living expenses. In addition to funding, you will have access to supervisory expertise, training opportunities, and interdisciplinary networks across Yorkshire. Find out more.

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science London Pre/Postdoctoral Fellowship for Foreign Researchers (Short Term)

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) is offering short-term pre or postdoctoral fellowships for foreign researchers. These provide the opportunity for researchers based outside of Japan to conduct collaborative research with leading research groups at Japanese Universities and Research Institutions for visits of between 1 to 12 months.

Application Deadline: Thursday, 1st December 2016
Fellowships must start between 1st May 2017 to 31st March 2018.

Visit the JSPS London website here for further information or find out about former JSPS Fellows who have taken part in this programme.

Shut up and write

Shut up and write! is back, providing a writing session to help you power through your procrastination. Bring along whatever work you are avoiding and sit down to write in the company of others facing the same struggles.

This is a session run as a part of PG Wednesdays programme to support postgraduate research students. Come along on 30 November, Room LFA /144 (1st floor), Harry Fairhurst Building, any time between 1pm and 6pm. There's no need to book.
