Tuesday 25 June 2019, 11am-4pm
Programme

Bowland Auditorium, Berrick Saul Building

(Meet in Lobby, Berrick Saul Building from 10:30am)

11.00-11.30  Dr Harry Munt, Undergraduate Admissions Tutor
‘Welcome and introduction: Studying History at York’

11.30-12.00 Dr Shane O’Rourke
‘The Russian Revolution – 100 Years On’

12.00-12.30 Dr Elizabeth Spencer
‘Getting Dressed in the Eighteenth Century’

12.30-13.15 Lunch

13.15-13.45 Introduction to the Borthwick Archives
The Borthwick is based on the University of York campus, and is one of the largest and most important archive repositories in Britain.

13:45-14:15 Dr Katherine Cross
‘Am I Descended from Vikings?’

14:15-14:45 Break and refreshments

14:45-15:15 Peter Redshaw on student life

15:15-16:00 Dr Harry Munt (History) & Liv Cooper (Student Admissions)
Applying to study History: choosing the right university, writing personal statements and what to do post-results. With Q&A

16:00 Close