Post Crash City Conference Series: Community
13th-14th December 2012
Treehouse, Berrick Saul Building, University of York

Day 1 - 13th December

9:30-10:00 Coffee and arrival

10:00-11:00 Session 1

Keynote - Street Commons: Crisis and Cohesion Post 2008
Suzanne Hall, London School of Economics

11:00-11:15 Break, tea & coffee

11:15-13:00 Session 2

The Worst of Architects and the Best of Bees: Living the Good Life on the Heygate Estate
Paul McGann, London Metropolitan University

‘Survival Instincts’: an Alternative Model of Community Activism Emerging from the Complexity of the ‘Active Citizen Turn’ in Post-Crash Britain
Johanne Orchard-Webb, University of Leeds

A Post-Political Critique of Resilient Communities
Liza Griffin, UCL

13:00-14:00 Lunch, Vanburgh College Cafe

14:00-15:45 Session 3

Not All Is Lost: Inner-City Communities in the Present, Alive and Under Threat
Luna Glucksberg, CURB/Goldsmiths London

A Small Community in the Big Society
Daryl Martin, CURB, University of York
“It Ain’t Where You’re From, It’s Where You’re At”: Making Life Livable in an ‘Impossible Community’
Gareth Millington, Department of Sociology, University of York

15:45 -16:00 Break, tea & coffee

16:00-17:30 Session 4

Moving Beyond ‘Social Tectonics’: Gentrification and its Other
Emma Jackson, University of Glasgow & Tim Butler, Kings College London

Rioting, Occupying and Wombling: Troubling Community in a Crashed City
Andrew Wallace, University of Lincoln

19:00 Dinner, Meltons Too, Walmgate, York

Day 2 - 14th December

9:30-10:00 Break, tea & Coffee

10:00-11:00 Session 1

Keynote - Broken Communities
Mike Savage, London School of Economics

11:00-11:15 Break, tea & coffee

11:15-12:45 Session 2

The Absent Community?: Conservative Integrationism in a Splintering City
Bob Jeffrey, Sheffield Hallam University & Waqas Tufail, Manchester Metropolitan University

CMYKommunity: Metanarratives of Belonging in a Time of Austerity
Simon Parker, CURB, University of York

A Small Community in the Big Society
Daryl Martin, CURB, University of York

London’s British Olympics: Ceremonial Unity and the Logic of Enclosure
Claire Westall, Department of English and Related Literature, York

12:45 Conference concludes.