

Post Crash City Conference Series: Urban Economies

4-5 July 2013

Treehouse, Berrick Saul Building, University of York

Day 1 - Thursday 4 July

9:30-10:00 Coffee and arrival

10:00-11:00 Session 1 - Keynote

Pushing Austerity

Jamie Peck, University of British Columbia, Vancouver.

11:00-11:15 Break, tea & coffee

11:15-13:15 Session 2

Manna from an earthly heaven? The illusion of the benefits of super-rich housing investments to world city economies

Rowland Atkinson, CURB, University of York

Economic need or Revanchist greed? Regeneration in Salford

Alex Black, CURB, University of York

London: Economic liberalisation and societal cost.

Alex Simpson, University of York

13:15-14:00 Lunch, Vanbrugh College Cafe

14:00-16:00 Session 3

A Greek Tragedy on the London Stage: The City, the Greater Euroland Crisis and the Urban Dark Age to Come.

Simon Parker, CURB, University of York

Re-Thinking and Re-Making Urban Economies: Nurturing London's Diverse Economy.

Myfanwy Taylor, UCL

After the global city: the global financial crisis and the neo-Marxist myth of 'command and control'.

Richard Harris, Swansea University

16:00-16.15 Break, tea & coffee

16:15-17:15 Session 4 - Keynote

Empiricising urban neo-liberalism: a tale of Manchester massification.

Alan Harding, University of Liverpool

19:00 Dinner Ning, Clifford Street, York.

Day 2 - Friday 5 July

09:00-09:30 Welcome Tea & Coffee

09:30-11:30 Session 5

Externalities of Urban Regeneration in Poland - Gentrification Effects.

Aleksandra Jadach-Sepiolo

Creative Cities as the New Spatial Fix? Place Retention and Resilience in Chicago.

Rachel Granger, University of Middlesex

The Myth of the Creative Class, Revisited: Polarization, Inequality, and the Creative City.

Marc Levine, University of Wisconsin

11:30-11:45 Break, tea & coffee

11:45-13:00 Session 6

The Exquisite Paradox of Localism: Gaming the Cities of the North of England, 'Both Hands of the State' and the Long Bust.

Nicola Headlam, Liverpool University

Assessing the Impact of Spatial Variation, Uneven Development and Displacement: an Investigation of Commercial and Industrial Property Market Filtering in Tyne and Wear.

Helen King & Paul Greenhalgh, Northumbria University

13.00 Concluding remarks and farewells, followed by lunch for registered delegates and speakers.