

Post-Crash Policing, 15-16th March, 2012
Centre for Urban Research
University of York

Day 1

9.45 - 10.15 Coffee

10.15 – 11.15

Ubiquitous Border? Understanding the New Surveillance

Steve Graham, Newcastle University

11.15 - Tea

11.30

Policing marginalized populations through crime mapping: bad abstractions made real

Bernd Belina

Public order policing in crisis? Surveillance, kettling & occupy

Gemma Galdon Clavell (UOC) and Rosamunde Van Brakel (VUB)

Post Crash Policing: Countering the Marketisation Thesis

Adam White

13.00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.30

Ejected Cities

Rowland Atkinson

Policing the Revanchist City

Oliver Smith

Spaces of Exception

Simon Parker

15.30 Coffee

16.00 – 5.00

Policing from Below? Hybrid Governance and Criminal Responsibilization in Kingston, Jamaica

Rivke Jaffe

Responding to collective dissent

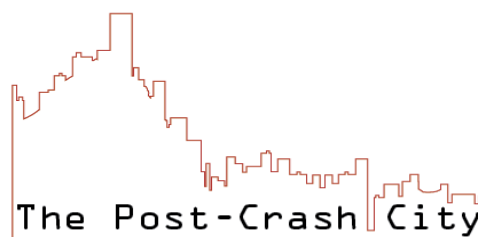

Joanna Gimore, University of Manchester

7pm, Dinner, Melton Too's, Walmgate, York

Day Two

10.00 Coffee

10.30 – 12.30

Discretion and the data border

Alex Hall, Department of Politics, University of York

Policing the return of capital to the post-industrial city: regeneration and the politics of security

Will Jackson (University of Central Lancashire) & Bob Jeffery (Sheffield Hallam University)

The evolving meaning of prevent policing, community engagement and social control in the context of progression towards both 'reflexive modernisation' and 'dispositif' precautionary risk".

Paul Dresser, Manchester Metropolitan University

Closing keynote

Simon Winlow, University of York

12.30 CLOSE

