

Sterne Room, Grays Court, Chapter House Street, York, North Yorkshire, YO1
7JH

Friday 25 January 2013

SMALL CITIES IN THE BIG SOCIETY

PROGRAMME

12.00–12.30 Buffet Lunch

SESSION 1

12.30–15.00

Simon Parker, University of York. Re-balancing for what? Re-balancing for whom?
The uneven geographies of urban policy in post-crash Britain.

Paul Cowie, University of Newcastle. Rural entrepreneurs and the new rural economy.

Steve Hanson, Goldsmiths, London. Deracinated localism: 'Getting by' in Todmorden.

Discussant: TBC

15.00–15.30 BREAK

SESSION 2

15.30–18.00

Daryl Martin, University of York Grand Designs? Resilient patterns of regeneration in the North of England.

Matthias Bernt, IRS Erkner Grant machines, instead of growth machines. What drives Governance in shrinking German cities?

Mike Childs, Friends of the Earth, Riding the storm: Could cities drive the change to human and environmental well-being?

Discussant: Carolyn Snell, University of York