

Inspiring Apes

How does the way we think about apes shape what we know about them?

How has the cultural status of apes in the West changed over time?

Wentworth College, University of York
Wednesday 27th June in W/222
from 2.00pm - 4.30 pm

Contact amanda.rees@york.ac.uk

Speakers

Ian Redmond (Independent Scholar)
From Inspiration to Conservation: Gorillas to Bonobos

Amanda Rees (University of York)
Primatological fieldwork: apes and the fieldworker's regress

Richie Nimmo (University of Manchester)
Sociology and cultural primatology

Greg Radick (University of Leeds) Kafka's Ape: the Problem of the Real-Life Red Peter

What can studying ape culture teach us about human evolution?

These and other issues will be explored at a round-table workshop. Come prepared to ask questions and help us answer them!

A WHITE ROSE ANIMALS WORKSHOP
York/Sheffield/Leeds/ 2010-2012