

Making Research Count, University of York
The Troubled Families Programme; research, policy and practice
Wednesday 10th September 2014

This seminar helps you to meet a number of requirements in the College of Social Work Professional Capabilities Framework. . You can find full information at <http://www.tcsw.org.uk/understanding-the-pcf/>

In particular we draw your attention to:

1. Professionalism: identify and behave as a professional social worker, committed to professional development

1.9 demonstrate a commitment to your continuous learning and development

2. Values and ethics: apply social work ethical principles and values to guide professional practice

2.4 demonstrate respectful partnership work with service users and carers, eliciting and respecting their needs and views, and promoting their participation in decision-making wherever possible

3. Diversity: recognise and apply anti-discriminatory and anti-oppressive principles in practice

3.1 understand how an individual's identity is formed by factors such as culture, economic status, family composition, life experiences and characteristics, and take account of these to understand their experiences, questioning assumptions where necessary

4. Rights, justice and economic wellbeing: advance human rights, promote social justice and economic wellbeing

4.1 understand, identify and apply in practice the principles of social justice, inclusion and equality

4.4 recognise the impact of poverty and social exclusion and promote enhanced economic status through access to education, work, housing, health services and welfare benefits

5. Knowledge: apply knowledge of social sciences, law and social work practice theory

5.1 demonstrate a critical understanding of the application to social work of research, theory and knowledge from sociology, social policy, psychology and health

5.4 recognise the short and long term impact of psychological, socio-economic, environmental and physiological factors on people's lives, taking into account age and development, and how this informs practice

5.10 recognise the contribution, and begin to make use, of research to inform practice

5.11 demonstrate a critical understanding of research methods

6 Critical reflection and analysis: apply critical reflection and analysis to inform and provide a rationale for professional decision-making

6.2 inform decision-making through the identification and gathering of information from multiple sources, actively seeking new sources

7. Intervention and skills: use judgement and authority to intervene with individuals, families and communities to promote independence, provide support and prevent harm, neglect and abuse

7.2 be able to communicate information, advice, instruction and professional opinion so as to advocate, influence and persuade

7.3 demonstrate the ability to engage with people, and build, manage, sustain and conclude compassionate and effective relationships

7.5 select and use appropriate frameworks to assess, give meaning to, plan, implement and review effective interventions and evaluate the outcomes, in partnership with service users

7.10 recognise complexity, multiple factors, changing circumstances and uncertainty in people's lives, to be able to prioritise your intervention

8 Contexts and organisations: engage with, inform, and adapt to changing contexts that shape practice.

8.1 recognise that social work operates within, and responds to, changing economic, social, political and organisational contexts

8.2 understand the roles and responsibilities of social workers in a range of organisations, lines of accountability and the boundaries of professional autonomy and discretion

This seminar also helps you to meet a number of requirements in the Standards of Proficiency held by the Health and Care Professions Council. In particular we draw your attention to:
